

Underwater Search and Recovery

- Overview:
- Planning, organisation, procedures, techniques, problems and hazards of underwater search and recovery diving
- Limited visibility diving and underwater navigation techniques
- Proper techniques and safety considerations for object location, including the use of various search patterns, lines and reels
- Proper technique and safety considerations for recovery of objects using various lifting devices

